ACCOMMODATION.

Chatham Maritime is quite close to London and is well served by trains and busses. By road it is very well signposted from Junction 3 of the M2. Kent is known as the garden of England because of its excellent climate. The rooms are available before and after the event for people who wish to combine the course with a small holiday and the venue is not very far from either London or France.

The accommodations on Campus are designed for use by one person, but in the past rooms have been occupied by couples or friends. Each room cost £17-50 (or US$ 28) per night and is usually situated within a group of five that share a kitchen where there is a fridge, microwave and oven also some additional facilities. On the campus there is a bar and communal dining area where cooked meals may be available.

PAYMENTS.

This can be made by sending a cheque or money order to the UKTA. Payment can be made in cash on Wednesday 29th August but to reserve a place we must be told that you will be coming. Also if rooms are needed we must know in advance as they are limited and will be allocated to the first people who apply.
